UDC Summit Conference | Workshops, why? | 2025 Schedule

Workshops, Why?

Knowledge sharing, that's why! Workshops offer a structured environment where experts can share their knowledge and experiences with participants. This allows for the dissemination of valuable information, insights, and best practices in a targeted and interactive manner.

Case in point, UDC is offering two amazing workshops during the UDC Outdoor Summit Conference. The first workshop will cover "Backpacking" taught by REI's own backpacking instructor. The second workshop will cover "How to Read the Weather" by Fox13's own meteorologist, Brek Bolton. Its gonna be amazing! Right?
